Hop at the Windsor House.

The first of a series of hops to be given at the Windsor house this season came off last evening at Shewell's ball. There was a full audience, and the girls were dressed in many of their friends, and the event was thoroughly enjoyed by all. During the evening a taste of the entertainment was served, and dancing was kept up until a late hour.

A Reduction of one-half.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has reduced its fare to Baltimore during the present week to $1 for third class trip, the tickets being good for two days. This arrangement has been made to accommodate those who will go to attend the Baltimore exhibition.

Kindergarteners in Council.

Quite a large number of ladies engaged in teaching kindergartens, and friends of the system, assembled last evening at Kindergarteners in Council, and with the kindergartens themselves, to meet an organization entitled "The Washington Kindergarten Union," which, according to the constitution read, is to constitute an auxiliary of the American Froebel union, and is to unite fraternally all who professionally adhere to the kindergarten system, according to Froebel, or any system similar thereto. The officers for the coming year were Mrs. Louis Pollock, president; Miss Nelly Bayard, and Miss Gertrude Hinck, vice-presidents; Miss Frederika Nimm, secretary; Miss Mary Hatch, treasurer, and Miss Julia Hinck, auditor.

A Popular Clothing-House.

The establishment of George F. Thomas & Co., the most prominent business, and largest concern of both men and women, in the city, in selling goods of fine quality and the best make, at low prices and advertising strictly to the enterprise rule, has earned a well deserved popularity. The smooth line of fall and winter goods now offered, the firm deems competition, bold in quality, make and price.

The Latest Bulletin of E. H. Ward.

In same directory, 1880, page 74, class "Mail Dealer," will be found 93 following. Alderney originates, never imitates, gives a gilt-edge article or dairy products for a living price.

The publication of the "Mail Dealer" throughout the state that supply us with news. Followers trying to imitate, trot out your Alderney cattle for public exhibition if you dare.

SPORTS AT 117 CITY.

Bounds and Beagles on a Dead Scant—Arrival of Running Horses.

The attendance at the fair grounds yesterday was the slimmest since the fair opened, the only attraction announced being a fox-hunting sport. The sport is new in this city, and not much enthusiasm manifested. Mr. S. N. Hyde of Hothby Hill, Md., was the projector of the sport, and his kennel of beagles was the only entry for a mile dash. A boy on horseback with a rope tied round his arm, to which was attached several foxskins, galloped over the course, and when he reached the finish, his dogs were let loose from the judge's stand. A brown-and-black beagle named Bramble Bush was the first to strike the scent, and led the pack a pretty chase around the track. The sport was rather exciting, and those present seemed to enjoy it. The leader of the pack was a black dog.

The next event was a chase across country, for which fox-hounds and beagles started. Bramble Bush again showed his superiority by picking up the trail, but was not able to compete with the hounds, one of whom, named Lee, owned by Dr. Paul Jones of Princeton, N. J., was the best. The dogs were let loose from the judge's stand. A brown-and-black beagle named Bramble Bush was the first to strike the scent, and led the pack a pretty chase around the track. The sport was rather exciting, and those present seemed to enjoy it. The leader of the pack was a black dog.

A building permit has been issued to C. B. Pearson to erect seven two-story brick houses on R street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets northwest, for $3,500.

The highest bidder for the land, the Fannie church, bid $1,000, and adjourned until Monday night without transacting any business.

The erection of sixty-two new street lamps has been ordered. Of this number fifty-six will be placed in alleys, where needed, in accordance with the recommendation of the chief of police.

John Green, alias Mitchell, Albert Dodson and Albert Minor, charged with burglarizing in Friday's and Saturday's running meeting and from Philadelphia last evening and are at the train station from which the former of owners have also been received stating that they will be here this afternoon, and asking that stables be prepared for them.

In the report of the five-mile bicycle race at the fair grounds Monday, it was incorrect that the distance was one mile. Mr. Conroy, who won the third prize in the one-mile race, and second honors in the slow race, was not entered in the five-mile race, but was confounded by the reporters with Mr. F. G. Wood, whose colors were similar.

Trimmers Cliftion yesterday received from the Columbia bank note counters an installment of $500.00 for the payment of his bonds of $2,000.00 which he had used for the conversion of bonds of suit certificates, so that he is now prepared to issue bonds of the denomination of either $500 or $100.

Officers Lombardy and Baxter found a colored man in an insensible condition on Nineteenth street, between F and G streets northwest, from the effects of an apoplectic fit. The man was unconscious and unable to speak. He was taken to the Franklin hospital.

A new Garfield and Arthur banner will be flying to the breeze from THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN office to-day in honor of the glorious results of yesterday's elections. The flag will be raised under the auspices of the Garfield and Arthur ratification meeting committee.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given at the Fifteenth street theater yesterday evening of readings by Professor Edward C. Townsend. He made a fine selection of pieces, both humorous and pathetic. To hold the undivided attention of an audience for an hour and a half, as Mr. Townsend did, is certainly complimentary to him.

John N. Williams, a young man, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Smith, to serve a term of six months in the State Prison for breaking and entering into the billiard hall of the Imperial hotel, billiard room, and thirty days additional in default of restitution. An appeal was noted and bonds fixed in the sum of $200.

Lieutenant R. C. DuBois, U. S. A., was listened to with intense interest last evening at the Masonic temple during his reading of "The War," a work that has created no little sensation in Germany and France, and furnished much material for comment by the press of England and the continent. The translation and presentation of the subject is the first of a series and deserving of high commendation.

The Baltimore Celebration.
